Mercedes-Benz 400 E

ALMANDINE RED · BLACK LEATHER

SWISS CAR · 1994

The 500 E's quieter brother.

The 400 E pairs a 4.2-litre V8 with the regular W124 body, without the wide arches of the 500 E. Only around 15,000 were built.

Most went to Japan and the United States. This Swiss car keeps all books, including the service book.

A GENEROUS SPECIFICATION

A wolf in sheep's clothing.

We offer this Swiss 400 E from May 1994 in almandine red metallic with black leather. It carries veteran status, all books including the service book are present and every service has been completed, with considerable investment in its mechanics and care. As a rare transitional model, it combines black bumpers and the old badge with the new grille. Connoisseurs will know how seldom such a car is offered.
